

G Square invests € 15 million in zahnarztzentrum.ch, a leader in dental services in Switzerland

Paris (France) and Winterthur (Switzerland), September 9, 2010 – G Square, a Paris-based private equity firm dedicated to providing buy-out or expansion capital to European mid-cap healthcare companies, announces an investment of € 15 million in zahnarztzentrum.ch, a leader in dental services in Switzerland.

zahnarztzentrum.ch is a leading provider of dentistry services in German-speaking Switzerland. It currently operates 10 dental service centres under its own brand, offering the full range of dentistry services to its patients 365 days a year at affordable costs. The company employs a staff of 220 and expects to generate sales around € 28 million in 2010.

The founders and main shareholders of the Company, Dr. Sara Hürlimann and Christoph Hürlimann will continue managing and developing the Company. Together with G Square, they plan to expand the business of zahnarztzentrum.ch within Switzerland and deploy it in other European countries.

Christoph Hürlimann, co-CEO of the Company, declared: “We are happy to welcome G Square as an investor. Their deep expertise in the healthcare sector and their experience as professional shareholders will provide great support to our strategy”.

Dr. Sara Hürlimann, co-CEO, added: “the pan-European experience of G Square, within a complex and diversified regulatory environment, is very attractive to us in our development plan outside Switzerland”.

Dr. Laurent Ganem, President and Founder of G Square stated: “We are delighted to invest in this fast growing dental services chain. The innovative concept developed by zahnarztzentrum.ch is already thriving in Switzerland. We are very impressed with what has been achieved so far, and believe that Management has the capability to successfully replicate the model in other European countries”.
