Palamon and G Square backed Grupo SAR becomes the Spanish leader in elderly care with acquisition of MapfreQuavita

Grupo SAR, a leading Spanish provider of care to the elderly backed by European Private Equity firms Palamon Capital Partners ("Palamon") and G Square, has announced the acquisition of Mapfre Quavita, the third largest operator in the Spanish residential care market, for an undisclosed amount. The transaction is subject to regulatory approvals.

The combined business will have over 80 residential units and 10,500 places generating €300 million of revenue, making it the largest operator in the Spanish market. Grupo SAR will continue to focus on delivering high quality services for the most complex elderly care needs whilst the acquisition will broaden its footprint to cover 16 of Spain's 17 Regions. The transaction also provides Grupo SAR with an entry point to the tele-assistance business, which offers opportunities for further growth and service sophistication.

Palamon and G Square jointly invested in Grupo SAR in May 2009 to help the company meet the growing demand for elderly care services in Spain driven by strong underlying socio-economic trends. Grupo SAR's market leading commitment to quality of care made it the ideal platform with which to consolidate the fragmented Spanish market. All of Grupo SAR's investors, including founding shareholder Confide and management, participated in the funding.

The combined business employs more than 12,000 staff and plans to expand its workforce as it continues to identify organic and acquisition growth opportunities under the leadership of the founder, Higinio Raventos, and the CEO, Jorge Guarner.

Jaime-Enrique Hugas, a principal at Palamon Capital Partners said, "The Spanish elderly care market continues to grow due to strong macro trends, despite the challenging economic environment. The combined business will continue to offer the highest quality of residential and home care to dependent people from both the public and private sectors. This is a significant transaction in the industry and demonstrates Grupo SAR's ongoing commitment to the sector."

Laurent Ganem, President of G Square said, "The acquisition of Mapfre Quavita is a quantum leap for Grupo SAR, which becomes by far the Spanish market leader in elderly care and home care. We are very enthusiastic about the prospects of the Company and are totally supportive of the management team in its expansion strategy and its commitment to deliver high standards of care to the elderly."
