

G Square announces a recruitment and two promotions

London - December 2, 2014

G Square is pleased to announce that Leo Shui has joined the firm as Associate.

- Prior to joining G Square, Leo worked in the Healthcare Investment Banking Group of Rothschild in London, where he participated in healthcare M&A cross-border transactions, providing valuation and deal execution advice. He worked previously for two years at Lazard Frères Investment Banking in Paris.

Leo holds a BA in Economics from University of California, San Diego and an MBA from both HEC in France and Tsinghua University in China.

In addition, G Square has promoted two members of its investment team:

- Renaud Dessertenne, who joined G Square in 2008, has been promoted to Partner. Prior to joining G Square, Renaud worked two years at Deutsche Bank in Paris and two years at Lazard Frères Investment Banking team in Paris and London.
Renaud holds a Master's degree in Finance from ESSEC and a Master's degree in Engineering from the Ecole Spéciale des Travaux Publics.
- Sebastian Shea, with the firm since 2010, has been promoted to Principal. Before joining G Square, Sebastian worked for two years in the Healthcare Investment Banking Group of Rothschild in London. Previously, he worked for two years at Berenson & Co. in New York. Sebastian holds a BA in Physics and Philosophy from Yale University and an MBA from Columbia Business School.