

G Square announces two recruitments

London - September 21, 2015

G Square is pleased to announce that it recruited two professionals.

- Andrew Kim joined G Square in August as Senior Associate. Prior to G Square, Andrew was in charge of new investment opportunities and portfolio monitoring at Ares Life Sciences in London for three years. Previously he worked for two years in the Healthcare Investment Banking team of Barclays Capital in London. Prior to getting his MBA, he worked at Halozyme Therapeutics (a biopharmaceutical company) in San Diego, Calif. and McKinsey in Washington D.C.
Andrew holds a BS and an MS from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology and an MBA from London Business School.
- Jaina Kesha joined G Square in September as Accounting Administrator. Prior to G Square, Jaina worked as fund operations administrator in the Alternative Investment Solutions of State Street Bank and Trust Company in London, and prior to that at Ipsos MORI.
Jaina holds a BS from the University of Essex and an Investment Operations Certificate from the CISI.
